

Mrs. Torr/Mrs. Bradley

Our Week at a Glance

"No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted." Aesop

Monday 11/27	Tuesday 11/28
In Foundations we have introduced trick words. Trick words are words that you cannot tap out. Here are the trick words we have learned so far: a, and, the, his, is, and of. Ask your child to spell them!	The children have been learning how to write and scoop sentences. Have your child write/sound out the following sentence. (It should include a capital letter at the beginning of the sentence and a period at the end.) The cat is on the mat. Then ask your child how to scoop it. The cat is on the mat.
Wednesday 11/29	Thursday 11/30
EMD with Shawn the Storyteller. 😊 Math: We have been working on fact families, math facts and solving word problems. Ask your child if he/she can solve this: Mrs. Torr had 14 rocks. Mrs. Bradley asked if she could have some. Mrs. Torr gave some to Mrs. Bradley and now she has 8 left. How many rocks did Mrs. Torr give to Mrs. Bradley?	Book read: Up in the Garden and Down in the Dirt by Kate Messener

“No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted.” Aesop

They should have a number bond, picture (with labels) and four number sentences (fact families).

Friday 12/1

Notes

Shapeville

Today the kids were challenged to create a city using only the pattern block templates. They had to decide what kind of buildings, animals and people to create. Some children created skyscrapers, spaceships, animals and a variety of people to live in their towns. Ask your child what he/she named his/her town.

Parent Information

Our visiting author, Kate Messner, will be here on Monday, December 1st.
