Our Week at a Glance

“Kindness is like snow - it beautifies everything it covers.” Kahlil Gibran

Monday 12/4	Tuesday 12/5
Visiting Author - Kate Messner  Kate Messner was a fantastic speaker engaging the students with pictures of animal tracks and stories about how she decided to become an author at a young age. Her first book was a story about sharks. She made her parents keep it on the refrigerator and show it to every visitor that came through the door! Ask your child how to be a snowshoe hare!	In Foundations we have introduced digraphs. Digraphs are two letters that make one sound. The digraphs that we introduced are: wh, th, ch, sh and ck. Ask your child to show you how to tap out these words: ship, chin, and when.  Ask your child how to be a snowshoe hare!
Wednesday 12/6	Thursday 12/7
EMD story with Mr. Goldsmith. 😊 Math: We have been reviewing for the end of module assessment in Eureka. We are reviewing fact families, math facts and solving word problems. We have been teaching the kids to play Racko, a great game for sequencing numbers! If you are looking for an educational game as a holiday gift for your child, this might fit the bill!	We enjoyed our weekly time exploring with puzzles, blocks, legos etc...  Some of our children enjoyed Coding with Mrs. Curtin! The rest will have their turn next Wednesday!
