

Mrs. Torr/Mrs. Bradley

Our Week at a Glance

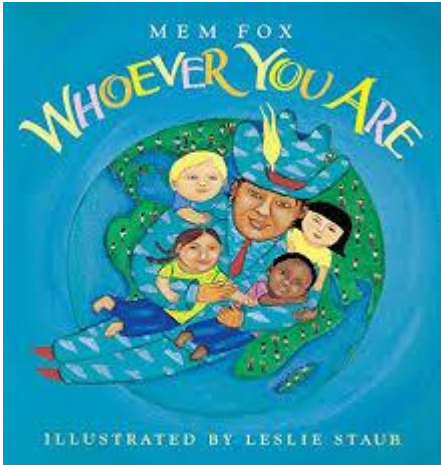

“The fire of literacy is created by the emotional sparks between a child, a book and the person reading.” Mem Fox

Monday 9/18	Tuesday 9/19
Math: practiced numbers before and after, as well as locating numbers and moving around the 100 chart Introduced Squiggle - the children drew pictures from a squiggle line. Once the pictures are drawn they will write a descriptive sentence to go with the picture. 	Scholastic News this week was all about Ted Arnold. We watched a video where he explained his writing process and how he got the idea for Fly Guy. Ask your child how Ted Arnold got his idea. Book: Hi! Fly Guy by: Ted Arnold
Wednesday 9/20	Thursday 9/21
EMD story with Mr. Goldsmith ☺ We began using our Starfall journals. We practiced words that had the short a sound.  You can access this website at home @Starfall.com	The children are beginning to internalize the rotation for literacy centers. They enjoy library time and using Bookflix on the Ipad. You can access Bookflix at home by going to the Moharimet web page, choose Our Library then Flix sites. The username is Moharimet and the password is Bookflix. There are many wonderful picture books that give children the opportunity to hear the story aloud and read along.

Mrs. Torr/Mrs. Bradley

Our Week at a Glance

“The fire of literacy is created by the emotional sparks between a child, a book and the person reading.” Mem Fox

Friday 9/22	Notes
Math: introduced children to solving word problems using the read, draw and write strategy. We read the problem, the children draw a picture (with labels) and write a number sentence. Book: Whoever You Are by Mem Fox 	Parent Information Reminder: Open House will be on Thursday, September 28th from 5:30pm - 6:30pm. Save the Date: At the Open House, we will have sign-ups for fall conferences on October 6th. We are in need of absorbent paper towels 😊 any donations would be much appreciated! 